Qualifying Examination Paper Face Page
(fill out completely)

Title: __________________________________________________________________

Student’s Name: __________________________________________________________

Date: ____________________________________________________________________

Advisor: __________________________________________________________________

I have read the final version of this qualifying paper and certify that it is in the correct format:

__________________________________________________________________________ Advisor’s signature

__________________________________________________________________________ Date

Length of paper (double-spaced, 12-point font, 1 inch margins, include page numbers)

of pages

_______ Abstract (1 max)

_______ a. Specific Aims (1 max)

_______ b. Background and Significance (5 Suggested max)

_______ c. Preliminary Studies (6 suggested max)

_______ d. Research Design and Methods (6 suggested max)

_______ e. Discussion (3 suggested max)

_______ Total (22 maximum)

References – in order of citation with titles and all authors included

Figures and Tables – include legends that largely allow understanding of the figure or table without need to read the text; define all symbols and abbreviations in the figure or table in the legend.

FACE PAGE